

CHARM is a group which brings together those involved in records and archives management for Charities and Voluntary Organisations.

What does CHARM Do?

- Works to promote the value of the Voluntary Sector's Heritage.
- Raise the profile of Archives & Records Management within Voluntary Sector organisations.
- Contributes expert knowledge and experience to Voluntary Sector initiatives in Archives & Records Management.
- Provides a forum for discussion and networking.
- Helps support Archivists and Records Managers within the sector.

How do I get involved?

We are a co-operative group with no subscription and no formal structure. The only qualification for membership is a genuine interest in Voluntary Sector Heritage, its care and promotion.

We hold quarterly meetings in London and across the country, a great opportunity to meet new people and visit other Voluntary Sector archives.

CHARM is an affiliate group of the Section for Specialist Repositories of the Archives and Records Association (ARA) .
